Nikah Important Information

- Marriage (nikah) fee must be paid in full when submitting the marriage form. The current fee is £150 (non-refundable).
- Passports & proof of address must be provided for both bride and bridegroom (originals only – no photocopies)
- A Marriage ceremony will have to be pre-booked and a Nikah form must be filled in and submitted at least 14 days prior to the solemnisation day.

Nikah (marriage) is a sacred social contract between bride and groom and is strongly encouraged in Islam. It is declared to be one half of a Muslim's faith. In another narration, the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) has been reported to have said,

'Do not delay in three things;

1. The offering of obligatory prayer.
2. The offering of the funeral prayer when the deceased's body is present.
3. The marriage of a woman when her suitable match is found.'

There are a number of things to be taken into consideration before one can arrange a Nikah such as:

1. Mutual consent from both the bride and groom for the Nikah (marriage)
2. Two adult witnesses and representation from the bride who will be present at the Nikah.
3. Mehr – The marriage gift (Mehr) is a divine injunction. The giving of Mehr to the bride by the groom is an essential part of the contract and may be paid in cash, property or movable objects to the bride herself. The amount of Mehr is legally specified according to sharia law, however, moderation according to the existing social norm is recommended. The Mehr (Mu'ajjal), or prompt to be paid immediately to the bride at the time of marriage, Mehr (Muwajjal), or deferred to a later date. The deferred Mehr however, falls due in case of death or divorce.

COVID 19 Rules and Regulations

1. No attendees over the age of 70 to attend.
2. Anyone shielding from Covid 19 must not attend (please check with both parties)
3. Permission is required to distribute food or sweets allowed in the Masjid premises inside or outside.
4. No Nikah announcement will be made after any Salah.
5. Strictly no more than 25 people to attend. Only immediate family of both bride and groom to attend.
6. When Nikah is completed you must vacate the Masjid immediately, no hugging or shaking hands.
7. Please avoid touching any surfaces and always sanitise your hands.
